Dubai

Formed in December 1971, after achieving independence from Britain, Dubai is one of Seven States that make up the Middle Eastern country of the United Arab Emirates (the UAE).

WHY DUBAI?

Dubai really is like nowhere else in the world. This is a destination that is famous throughout the world for its daring and revolutionary architecture, for having the vision, audacity, to create man-made palm-shaped islands.

Dubai is very safe as a holiday destination, be it with family or friends.

Bali

Balinese culture was strongly influenced by Indian, Chinese, and particularly Hindu culture, beginning around the 1st century AD. ... Some religious and cultural traditions still practiced today can be traced to this period. The Hindu Majapahit Empire (1293-1520 AD) on eastern Java founded a Balinese colony in 1343.

WHY BALI?

The Indonesian Island of Bali is, for good reason, a firm favourite on many travellers' bucket lists. The paradise isle is full of contrasts, and you can go from beach to rainforest to mountain all within a couple of hours. Not to mention the excellent food.

One thing you can't help but notice in Bali is how friendly and welcoming the people are. The Balinese are incredibly hospitable and want you to love the island as much as they do.

Maldives

The Maldives (formerly called the Maldivian Islands) were first settled in the 5th century B.C. by Buddhist seafarers from India and Sri Lanka. ... They came under British protection in 1887 and were a dependency of then-colony Ceylon until 1948. An independence agreement with Britain was signed July 26, 1965.

WHY MALDIVES?

Whether it is to relax and unwind, or simply finding some time away from your busy hectic life, Maldives Luxury Resorts are the most privy destinations you can look up for, which will vouch you the perfect hideaway.

Sri Lanka

About 500 BC ago The Sinhalese Community migrated to Sri Lanka from India. According to legend, the first settlers were led by a man named Vijaya. According to tradition, Buddhism was introduced into Sri Lanka in 260 BC by a man named Mahinda.... The capital of the first Sri Lankan kingdom was at Anuradhapura.

WHY SRI LANKA?

Travel destinations in Sri Lanka provide an array of holiday experience from sun kissed beach holidays to a marathon of wildlife watching, adrenaline pumping adventure sports and pilgrimage to some of the oldest cities in the world. Overall an amazing holiday destination.

Singapore

The history of Singapore can be divided into three parts, The Earlier British Invasion and then conquered by the Japanese Empire from 1942 to 1945. Finally gaining independence in the year 1965. By the 1990s, the country had become one of the world's most prosperous nations, with a highly developed free market economy, strong international trading links, and the highest per capita gross domestic product in Asia outside Japan.

WHY SINGAPORE?

Singapore is the 5th most visited city in the world, and 2nd in Asia-Pacific. Singapore packs a surprisingly massive number of attractions: verdant parks, world-class zoos, luxurious hotels, historical structures, and deliciously cheap eateries.

Meghalaya and Assam

Meghalaya, the abode of clouds, is one of the most beautiful states in North-East India offering a variety of sights, activities, food and festivals to the tourists. The Living Double-decker Root Bridge is a famous attraction in Cherrapunji, where trekking and hiking activities are offered to tourists.

Assam's soothing beauty, offbeat tourists' attractions, spiritual ambience, the sacred river, humble people, and zealous culture, Assam boasts plenty of fascinating secrets. Being one of the Northeast India's iconic seven sisters, a holiday in Assam is about witnessing a heady mix of history, culture, and nature at the same time. The state happens to be the land of many wildlife reserves, which are further home to the one-horned rhino, one of Assam's tourism best-known mascots.
